Sociology is the youngest of the social science. The word sociology is derived from the Latin word 'Societus meaning 'society' and the Greek word 'logos' meaning 'study' or science. The etymological meaning of sociology is thus the science of society. Prof. Ginsberg defined it 'as the study of society that is of the web or tissue of human interaction and interrelations. In other word sociology the study of man's behavior in group or the

. Before sociology, the society were studied other different social sciences like history, economics, political science, anthropology, Sociology is the science of society. It has own subject matter like human groups, social behavior, social activity or any thing that related to human life. Sociology studies other sciences too because they are related to human life it does not study physical things except social activity. 3 psychology etc. but these science concentrates upon particular phased of human conduct specialize in studying it. History records major event of human life and event. Economics deals with matter of production, distribution, exchange and income or wealth. Anthropology studies about the past culture of man. Values

□ Introduction of values :

- In society, our concern is with social value,
- The term 'value' represents constituent parts of social structure,
- values may be defined as measure of goodness or desirability,
- Values are standards of social behavior .

Definition of values given by different sociologist :

- ❖ “Values are group conceptions of the relative desirability of things”.
-G.R. Leslie, R.F. Larson,
H.L. Gorman
- ❖ “Values are general standards and may be regarded as higher order norms”.
- H.M. Johnson

- ❖ “Values provide the general guidelines for the behavior of the people.”
– C.N. Shakar Ram
- ❖ “A value is a belief that something is good and worthwhile. It defines what is worth having and worth striving”.
- Michael Haralambos

Types of values.

Values can be classified into two broad categories:

- (1) Individual values:
- (2) Collective values:

Values can also be categorized from the point of view of their hierarchical arrangement:

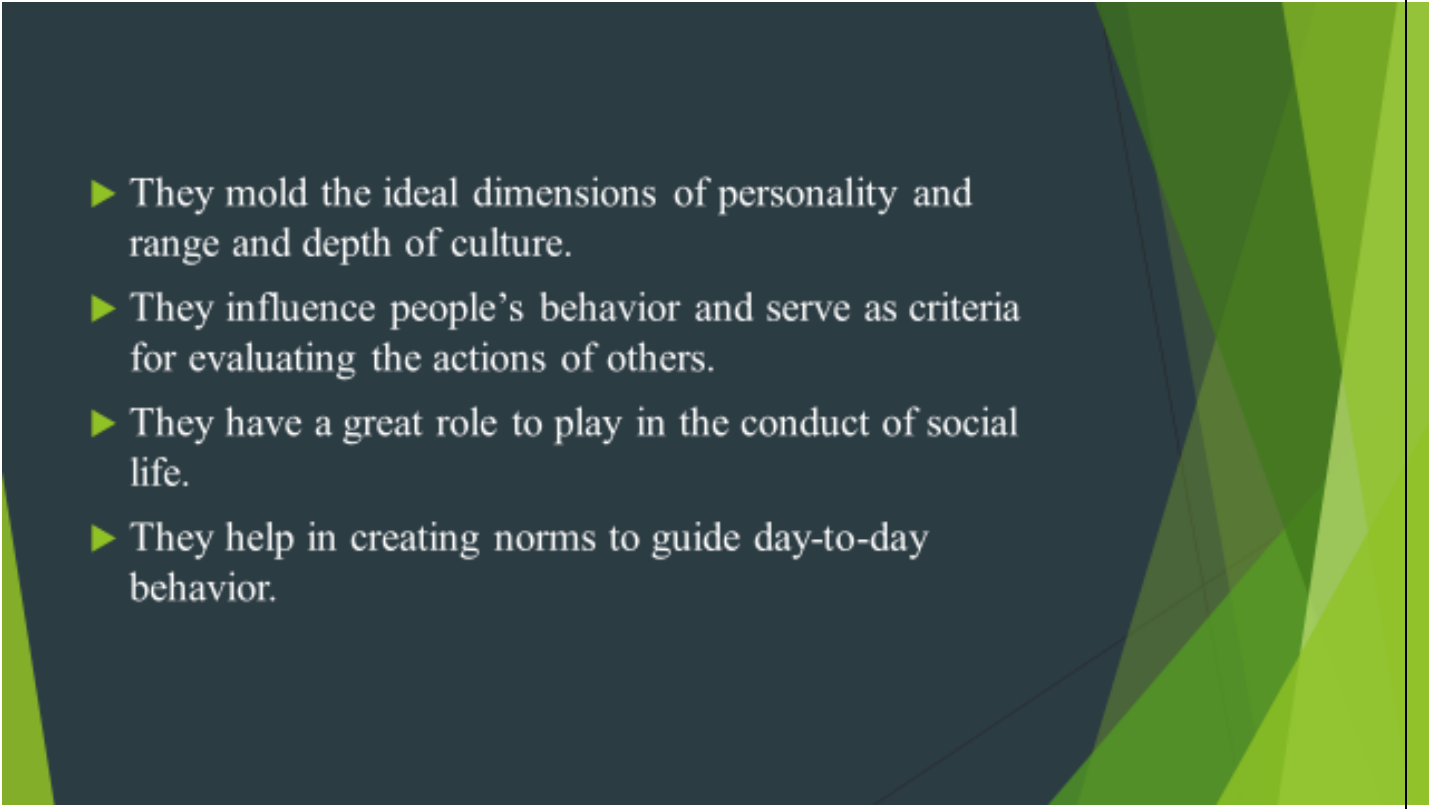

- (1) Intrinsic values:
- (2) Instrumental values:

❑Characteristic of values .

- Values are social in nature.
- Social values are collective
- Social values are universal.
- Values may conflict with each other.
- Social values are abstract.

Function of values

- ▶ Values play an important role in the integration and fulfillment of man's basic impulses and desires in a stable and consistent manner appropriate for his living.
- ▶ They are generic experiences in social action made up of both individual and social responses and attitudes.
- ▶ They build up societies, integrate social relations.

- ▶ They mold the ideal dimensions of personality and range and depth of culture.
